- (d) state the grounds on which relief is sought, setting out with sufficient particularity the facts relied on to sustain the prayer, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved;
- (e) be divided into consecutively numbered paragraphs, each of which, as much as possible, shall be confined to a distinct portion of the subject; and
- (f) conclude with a prayer, setting out particulars of the relief sought, for instance, that a specified person should be declared duly returned or elected, or that the election should be declared void, or that a return may be enforced.

(2) Evidence shall not be stated in the petition.

Particulars of illegal practice

3. (1) The judge may order, on an application in the manner prescribed as Form 2 in the Schedule, that such particulars as may be necessary to prevent surprise and unnecessary expense and to ensure a fair and effectual trial in the same way as in ordinary proceedings in the Court and on such terms as to costs and otherwise be delivered by the petitioner.

(2) Where an allegation is made against a person for the commission of an illegal practice under the Act, that allegation shall be made in the manner prescribed in Form 3 of the Schedule and the particulars shall include—

Petitioner to give address for service

4. The petitioner shall in his petition give the name and address of a legal practitioner whom he authorises to act on his behalf, or state that he acts for himself, and in either case give an address for service within 3 miles of the office of the Registrar.

(3) Where a respondent is evading service, the petitioner may apply, in the manner prescribed on Form 5 in the Schedule, to the judge, for an order deeming that a notice stating that the petition has been presented, the name of the petitioner, the prayer and the nature of the proposed security—is personal service on the respondent.

(4) The application under subsection (3) shall be supported by evidence on affidavit.

(5) A respondent shall, within 10 days after service on him of the notice of the petition, lodge with the Registrar and serve on the petitioner a statement of particulars of an address for service similar to those required under section 4 to be stated by a petitioner, and he shall state the said particulars in any application made by him for the purpose of objecting to the security given by the petitioner or otherwise.

(5) The application shall be made with not less than 4 days notice to the petitioner and the costs of the application shall be in the discretion of the judge who may decide which party shall pay them.

(6) The petitioner shall pay the costs of hearing and deciding an objection on the ground of insufficiency of a security unless at the time of leaving the recognizance with the Registrar the petitioner also left with the Registrar an affidavit sworn by each surety before a justice of the peace, or other person duly authorised to administer oaths, that he is possessed of immovable property of the value of double the amount for which he is bound by the recognizance, after satisfying all other debts and liabilities due to other persons.

Removal of objection where security declared insufficient

9. (1) If on an application under section 8, an order, in the manner prescribed as Form 8 in the Schedule, is made declaring the security insufficient and the objection allowed, the petitioner may, within a time not exceeding 10 days as may be ordered by the judge before whom the application is heard, deposit with the Court a sum of money as the judge may direct for the purpose of making the security sufficient.

(2) If the petitioner does not deposit the sum of money as directed by the order of the judge, no further proceedings shall be taken on the petition and the application stands dismissed.

(2) Where in the opinion of the judge, the proposed withdrawal of a petition is induced by any illegal bargain or consideration or is the result of any agreement, terms or undertaking prohibited by these Rules, he may, by order, direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner.

(3) If no order under subsection (2) is made with respect to the security given on behalf of the original petitioner, security to the same amount as would be required in the case of an original petitioner and subject to like conditions, shall be given on behalf of the substituted petitioner within 5 days after the order of substitution and before he takes any step in the proceedings.

(4) Subject to this section, a substituted petitioner shall stand in the same position, as nearly as may be, and be subject to the same liabilities, as the original petitioner.

(5) If a petition is withdrawn, the substituted petitioner is liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

Abatement of petition

14. (1) A petition shall be abated by the death of a sole petitioner or the survivor of several petitioners.

(2) The abatement of a petition shall not affect the liability of the petitioner's legal personal representative to pay the costs previously incurred.

(3) On the abatement of a petition, a party or person interested in the petition shall give to the Registrar notice of the abatement, in the manner prescribed as Form 14 in the Schedule and the Registrar shall immediately cause the notice to be inserted in the Gazette and in a newspaper of general circulation in Anguilla.

(4) Within one month after publication of the notice in the Gazette a person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates may apply to the Court, pursuant to section 13, to be substituted as a petitioner.

(5) The judge may, if he thinks fit, substitute as a petitioner the applicant on whose behalf security to the same amount as is required in the case of an original petition is given and the security shall be subject to the same objection as the security given in an original petition.

Addition or substitution of respondent

15. (1) If, before the trial of a petition—

- (a) the respondent dies, then a person entitled to be a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates may give notice, in the manner prescribed in Form 15 of the Schedule, of the death of the respondent by publication in the Gazette and in a newspaper of general circulation in Anguilla; or
- (b) the respondent gives notice, in the manner prescribed in Form 16 of the Schedule, to the Registrar and to the petitioner that he does not intend to oppose the petition, the Registrar shall give notice of the intention of the respondent by publication in the Gazette and in a newspaper of general circulation in Anguilla.

(2) Within 21 days after publication of the notice under subsection (1) in the Gazette, a person may apply, in the manner prescribed as Form 17 of the Schedule, to the Court to be admitted as a respondent to oppose the petition, and the person shall be admitted accordingly either with the respondent, if there be a respondent, or in place of the respondent.

(3) Any number of persons not exceeding 3 may be admitted.

Notice of intention not to oppose petition

16. A respondent who does not intend to oppose the petition shall, not less than 7 days before the day fixed for the trial, serve notice in the manner prescribed in Form 17 of the Schedule to that effect on the petitioner and all other parties.

Notice of recrimination when petition complains of undue return and claims seat

19. (1) When a petition complains of an undue return and claims the seat for some person other than the person returned, the respondent may, within 10 days after the service of the notice of the petition, give notice in the manner prescribed in Form 18 of the Schedule to the petitioner that he intends to give evidence to prove that the person on whose behalf the seat is claimed was not duly elected.

(2) The grounds on which a respondent intends to complain that a person on whose behalf the seat is claimed was not duly elected shall be set out in the notice and the Rules applicable to a petition and the particulars of charges made in the petition shall apply to every notice.

Returning officer if complained of to be respondent

20. Where a petition complains of the conduct of a returning officer, the returning officer shall for the purposes of these Rules, be the respondent except where there is a substitution of a respondent in his place.

Petition complaining of no return

21. A petition complaining of no return may be presented to the Court, and is deemed to be an election petition, and the judge may—

- (a) make an order on the petition as he thinks expedient for compelling a return to be made; or

- (b) allow the petition to be heard in a manner provided with regard to petitions.

Mode of trial of petitions

22. The following provisions apply to the trial of a petition—

- (a) the trial shall take place in open court at a time as a judge may appoint, not being less than 7 days after notice of trial, in the manner prescribed in Form 19 in the Schedule, has been given to the parties and published in the Gazette and in a newspaper of general circulation in Anguilla;
- (b) the judge may adjourn the trial from time to time, but the trial of every petition so far as practicable, and consistent with the interests of justice in respect of the trial, shall be continued from day to day on lawful days until its conclusion;
- (c) the judge may make a special report to the Governor upon any matter arising in the course of the trial, an account of which in his judgment ought to be submitted;
- (d) where it appears to the judge, on application, in the manner prescribed as Form 20 in the Schedule, that a constitutional question, not being a question under section 41(2) of the Constitution, is being raised by the petition, and such question affects the determination of an question under section 41(2), both the question in relation to section 41(2) and the first mentioned constitutional question may be heard before the Court, but—
- (i) in relation to the question under section 41(2), the determination of the Court is final and not subject to an appeal;
- (ii) in relation to the first mentioned constitutional question the determination of the Court may be subject to appeal.
- (e) the court office shall give the parties at least 14 days notice of the date, time and hearing of the petition under 22(d).

Evidence of illegal practice receivable before proof of agency

23. On the trial of a petition, unless the judge otherwise directs, any complaint of an illegal practice may be examined by the Court, and evidence in relation to the complaint may be received, notwithstanding that there is evidence of collusion between the candidate and a 3rd party in respect of the illegal practice.

Witnesses

24. (1) Witnesses shall be summoned and sworn in the same manner, as nearly as circumstances admit, as in an action tried in a civil trial.

(2) At the trial, the Court may, by order under the hand of the judge, require a person who appears to him to have been concerned in the election to attend as a witness, and a person wilfully refusing to obey that order shall be guilty of contempt of court.

(3) A witness may, after his examination by the Court, be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner and respondent, or either of them.

(4) A person called as a witness in respect of an election before the Court shall not be excused from answering any question relating to any illegal practice at or connected with the election, on the ground of privilege.

- (b) an answer by a person to a question put by or before the Court is not admissible in evidence against that person in civil or criminal proceedings, except in the case of any criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the evidence.

(6) The reasonable expenses incurred by a person in appearing to give evidence at the trial of a petition, if allowed to the person by order of the judge, is payable in the first instance by the party who calls him as a witness and the amount payable shall be ascertained and certified by the Registrar.

(7) The expenses under subsection (6) may be included in the costs of the petition and shall be paid by the party directed to pay those costs.

(8) The expenses of a witness called and examined by the judge are deemed to be costs of the petition and shall be paid as directed by the order of the judge.

General costs of petition

25. (1) Except where specifically provided for in these Rules, all costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the presentation of a petition, or of any consequent proceedings shall be in the discretion of the Court and shall be defrayed by the parties to the petition in a manner and in proportions as the Court may determine.

(2) The Court may disallow any costs, charges or expenses which may, in its opinion, have been caused by—

- (a) vexatious conduct;
- (b) unfounded allegations; or
- (c) unfounded objections,

on the part of either the petitioner or the respondent, and shall have regard to the discouragement of any needless expense by throwing the burden of defraying the same on the parties by whom it has been caused, whether or not the parties are on the whole successful.

(3) The rules and regulations of the Court with respect to costs to be allowed in actions, causes and matters in the Court shall, in principle and so far as practicable, apply to the costs of election petitions and connected proceedings and the amount of the costs may be fixed by the judge or may be directed to be assessed.

(4) Where the petitioner is ordered to pay any costs and he fails to pay the costs within 14 days from the date of the order of the Court—

- (a) the Registrar shall pay the costs out of any money deposited with the Court as security under these Rules and execution may be issued against the petitioner and the sureties jointly and severally for any balance not covered by the deposit; or
- (b) where security has been given by recognizance, the Registrar shall, on an affidavit of the respondent stating,
 - (i) the amount of the costs directed to be paid by the petitioner; and
 - (ii) that neither the petitioner nor any of the sureties has paid them within 14 days after the order to pay the same, certify the recognizance to be forfeited.

(5) The Court shall immediately issue execution for the recovery of the amount of the costs ordered to be paid against the petitioner and the sureties jointly and severally to the extent of the amount for which they are bound by the recognizance, but the petitioner is always liable to pay the full amount of the costs.

(6) If the security given by the petitioner is in the form of money deposited with the Court, the petitioner is entitled to a refund of a portion of the money exceeding the amount of the costs ordered to be paid by him.

(7) If a respondent who is ordered to pay any costs to the petitioner fails to do so within 14 days from the date of the order directing the payment, execution shall immediately be issued out of the Court for the recovery of the amount of costs.

(8) Execution shall be levied in accordance with the law governing execution in civil actions in the Court.

27. The costs of publication of the notice of the presentation of the petition in section 6 and of any other matter required to be published by the Registrar under these Rules shall be paid to the Registrar before the publication by the petitioner or other person moving the matter in the first instance and shall form part of the general cost of the petition.
